Foy R. Devine

Foy Devine chairs the Taylor English Litigation and Dispute Resolution practice group. Since 1969, Mr. Devine has concentrated his practice in civil trial work. He has handled business litigation of all types, as well as catastrophic personal injury and death cases arising out of product related injuries. He has frequently appeared in state and federal appellate courts. He is AV rated by Martindale-Hubbell, and has been selected as a Georgia Super Lawyer for several years. Mr. Devine has served on the State Bar of Georgia Board of Governors since 1988. He has also served on various committees and chaired the Advisory Committee on Legislation. In 1990-1991, he was President of the Georgia Trial Lawyers Association. As President, Mr. Devine was the principal driver behind a state wide program to increase public education regarding the civil justice system.
