

LaTise Miller

LaTise Miller is a member of Taylor English's Real Estate, Development & Construction group and her practice is centered on commercial real estate transactions. Ms. Miller has extensive experience closing acquisition and development loans as well as construction loans for a wide variety of projects. Ms. Miller has represented lenders, as well as purchasers and sellers, in all stages of commercial real estate transactions. Ms. Miller also has extensive experience representing lenders in the workout, modification, restructuring and foreclosure of troubled commercial loans.

Ms. Miller lives in Marietta with her husband, David, and their daughter, Katie Emma. Ms. Miller has a strong interest in legal issues that impact children with special needs and has done a variety of pro bono work for families of special needs children.

lmiller@taylorenghish.com

678.336.7148

Practice Areas

- Real Estate, Lending and Finance

Education

- J.D., Duke University School of Law, 1997
- B.S., cum laude, LaGrange College, 1994

Bar & Court Admissions

- Georgia